The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) recently concluded that we need to limit global warming to 1.5°C to avoid catastrophic consequences for people and our environment.To do so, the world needs to follow up peak emissions in 2025 with a halving of emissions every decade until 2050, starting with the first halving by 2030.

Urban energy solutions was a friendly fast paced work environment. The work was simple prefabrication jobs that involved putting light fixtures together and bending pipe. I learned how to use various hand tools, power tools, and heavy machinery.

Erneuerbare Energien (EE) haben in den letzten 15 Jahren einen Boom erlebt, und inzwischen haben die EE die konventionellen ölbetriebenen Generatoren überholt und haben in 2018 sehenswürdige 56% Anteil an der Energieerzeugung. Bedingt durch das Gesetz zur Förderung der EE sind Firmen im EE-Sektor steuerbefreit, und für Solaranlagen, die bis zu 50 ...
