I think Italians just don"t trust Italian food anywhere else, and rightly so. It sucks outside of Italy, usually. If Italians were narrow minded about food, there wouldn"t be sushi restaurants everywhere, lines out the door at fast food places like Burger King, Mexican food trucks making a fortune, and annual food festivals in all the big cities celebrating food from all over the world.

Those are the best Italian nations to form Italy, but the best nation to form Italy is clearly Aragon. They start with Naples and get Castile for free.
