Why are Syrians rejoicing in the streets?

Long-suffering Syrians have been rejoicing in the streets after one of the world's most brutal dictatorships suddenly crumbled in a few short weeks. For half a century,the Assad family ruled over Syria with an iron fist,with long-documented reports of mass incarceration torture,extra-judicial killings and atrocities against their own people.

Why did a tanker carry Iranian oil to Syria?

LONDON,Dec 9 (Reuters) - A tanker carrying Iranian oil to Syria turned round in the Red Sea to head away from its original destination after the fall of Syrian President Bashar al-Assad. Syria's 13-year civil war crippled the country's energy sector,making it highly reliant on imports from Iran. Below are facts about Syria's energy sector.

Are Syrian rebels advancing south to Homs?

Syrian rebels have made a lightning advance in the north of the country,taking two major cities: Aleppo,the second biggest city,and Hama,a strategically important city that lies on a vital supply route. The rebels are saying they'll advance further south to Homs,just over 100 miles from the Syrian capital of Damascus.

Is Homs a post-Assad Syria?

Syrian rebel fighters and locals celebrate in the central city of Homs early on December 8, 2024, after entering Syria's third city overnight. The anti-regime coalition is now disbanding Assad's military, laying out its vision for a post-Assad Syria.

Are Syrians still haunted by a legacy of persecution?

But millions of Syrians, including those from minority Christian and other religious communities, remain haunted by a legacy of persecution suffered at the hands of extremist groups like al Qaeda and ISIS.

Will Syria's fall of Aleppo disrupt Iran's proxies?

In Syria,Israel has consistently targeted Iranian personnel and supply routes used to transfer weapons to its proxies. The fall of Aleppo and potentially other cities bordering Lebanon could further disrupt those routes,placing Iran in a difficult position.
